Policy Statement:

In order to provide equal employment and advancement opportunities to all individuals, employment decisions at the City will be based on merit, qualifications, and abilities. The city does not discriminate in employment opportunities or practices on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, or any other characteristic protected by law. Any employees with questions or concerns about any type of unlawful discrimination or harassment in the workplace are encouraged to bring these issues to the attention of their immediate supervisor or Department Head or City Manager. Employees can raise concerns and make reports without fear of reprisal. Anyone found to be engaging in any type of unlawful discrimination or harassment will be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

Step 4b: Narrative Underutilization Analysis

In keeping with the commitment to have a workforce that reflects the community it services, we will continue to see if there is any way to attract more Hispanic, Asian, African Americans and Female applicants?

It should be noted that Groveland Police Department has had a high turnover rate of patrol officers in recent years. Several of the officers who have left employment have been minority groups including Hispanic, American Indian, African American, and females.

Step 5 & 6: Objectives and Steps

1. Groveland Police Department will continue to post job announcements in the local newspaper and recruit from area law enforcement training schools. We will continue to try to attract more minority groups to submit applications for employment.

- a. a. When a position becomes open, we will review the applications submitted and interview the minority applicants concerning how they learned of the position and how the police department might be able to recruit more qualified minority applicants.

Step 7a: Internal Dissemination

1. Distribute a copy of the EEOP short form to all employees in a supervisory position.
2. Post a copy of the EEOP short form at the police station so it is available for review by all employees and applicants.
3. Post a copy of the EEOP short form on the in-house computer system.

Step 7b: External Dissemination

1. Post a copy of the EEOP short form at City Hall for review by all city employees and the public.
2. Post a copy of the EEOP short form on the City of Groveland's public website.
